When Autumn Collins finds herself accidentally locked in the library for an entire weekend, she doesnâ€™t think things could get any worse. But thatâ€™s before she realizes that Dax Miller is locked in with her. Autumn doesnâ€™t know much about Dax except that heâ€™s trouble. Between the rumors about the fight he was in (and that brief stint in juvie that followed it) and his reputation as a loner, heâ€™s not exactly the ideal person to be stuck with. Still, she just keeps reminding herself that it is only a matter of time before Jeff, her almost-boyfriend, realizes he left her in the library and comes to rescue her.

Only he doesnâ€™t come. No one does.

Instead it becomes clear that Autumn is going to have to spend the next couple of days living off vending-machine food and making conversation with a boy who clearly wants nothing to do with her. Except there is more to Dax than meets the eye. As he and Autumn first grudgingly, and then not so grudgingly, open up to each other, Autumn is struck by their surprising connection. But can their feelings for each other survive once the weekend is over and Autumnâ€™s old life, and old love interest, threaten to pull her from Daxâ€™s side?
